Excellency and Dear Brother:

On the occasion of the celebration of the 173rd independence anniversary of Republic of Liberia, it gives me enormous pleasure to extend to you, and through me, on behalf of the Honorary Consulate of the Republic of Liberia Istanbul, the Republic of Turkey and in my Name, my warmest greetings, and congratulations, to His Excellency President Dr. George M. Weah, President of the Republic of Liberia, the Government and people of your great country as you mark this significant milestone.

QUOTE:

Your Excellency, Liberia is today enjoying continual peace, which has enabled us to intensify the processes of economic reconstruction and national renewal. The progress is evident by the policies and strategies President Weah, has formulated and implemented, including our Vision 2030 Pro-Poor Agenda for Prosperity and Development (PADP) Transformation which emphasizes creating jobs for our people, improving our energy and other physical infrastructure, and empowering our citizens, especially the youth. In the achievement of these and many other goals, the Honorary Consulate of the Republic of Liberia in Istanbul stand by you and ready to contribute toward the development of our great country, Liberia.

Happy Independence Day 2020!

With sentiments of my highest esteem,

Respectfully Your,

Selahattin YILMAZ
HONORARY CONSUL

His Excellency Mr. Gbehzohngar M. Findley
Minister
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Liberia
